Personal Information Notice: To ensure lawful distribution of New York Lottery prizes, the New York State Gaming Commission ("Commission"), which operates the New York Lottery, requires the mandatory disclosure of your personal information, including your Taxpayer Identification Number ("TIN"), to determine whether you are a self-excluded person pursuant to 9 NYCRR Part 5402; to determine statutory offset liability for prizes of $600 or more pursuant to New York State Tax Law §§ 1613-a, 1613-b and 1613-c and to administer federal and New York State income tax laws for prizes over $5,000, including, without limitation, Internal Revenue Code § 3402(q) and New York State Tax Law § 671. If you do not provide your personal information, your entry may not be processed, your claim may be denied, you may not be awarded a prize, or the law may require taxes to be withheld at a higher rate from any lottery winnings than would be withheld if your TIN is provided. The Commission's Lottery Prize Payments Unit is the custodian of prize claim records and may be contacted at PO Box 7533, Schenectady, NY 12301-7533 or by phone at (518) 388-3370.
